VOLUME CVII.--NO. 262. ALEXANDRIA, VA., WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 31, 1906. PRICE 2 CENTS.

A Valuable Agent.

The glycerine employed in Dr. Pierce's medicines greatly enhances the medicinal properties which it extracts and holds in solution much better than alcohol would. It also possesses medicinal properties of its own, being a valuable demulcent, nutritive, antiseptic and antiferment. It adds greatly to the efficacy of the Black Cherrybark, Golden Seal root, Stone root and Queen's root, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery" in subduing chronic, or lingering coughs, bronchial, throat and lung affections, for all of which these agents are recommended by standard medical authorities.

In all cases where there is a wasting away of flesh, loss of appetite, with weak stomach, as in the early stages of consumption, there can be no doubt that glycerine acts as a valuable nutritive and aids the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Queen's root and Black Cherrybark in promoting digestion and building up the flesh and strength, controlling the cough and bringing about a healthy condition of the whole system. Of course, it must not be expected to work miracles. It will not cure consumption except in its earlier stages. It will cure very severe, obstinate, chronic coughs, bronchial and laryngeal troubles, and chronic sore throat with hoarseness. In acute coughs it is not so effective. It is in the lingering coughs, or those of long standing, even when accompanied by bleeding from lungs, that it has performed its most marvelous cures. Send for and read the little book of extracts, treating of the properties and uses of the several medicinal roots that enter into Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and learn why this medicine has such a wide range of application in the cure of diseases. It is sent free. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. The "Discovery" contains no alcohol or harmful, habit-forming drug. Ingredients all printed on each bottle wrapper in plain English.

Sick people, especially those suffering from diseases of long standing, are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound copy

Tonight is Hallowe'en.

There is no night in the year upon which the popular imagination has stamped a more peculiar character than All Hallow's Eve. The leading idea respecting it is that it is the time of all others when supernatural influences prevail. It is the night set apart for a universal walking abroad of spirits. Divination is then believed to attain its highest power and the gift of calling spirits "from the vasty deep" becomes available to all.

In the fireside customs of this night the world over there is a marked uniformity. Nuts and apples are everywhere in demand to such an extent that the night is often known in England as nutcrack night. The nuts are not only cracked and eaten, but used to foretell the issue of love affairs. There is the custom, for instance, of putting a nut named after a lover upon the stove or grate. If it cracks or jumps, the lover will prove unfaithful; if it begins to burn, he has a true regard for the person making the trial.

The most popular sport with apples on Hollowe'en is to float a lot of them in a tub of water and let the children duck their heads into the water and try to catch the apples with their mouths.

Robert Burns describes a Scotch ceremony called "The Three Dishes, or Luggies." One dish is filled with clean water, another with dirty water and a third is left empty. They are ranged on the hearth and one by one those making the trial are led up to them blindfolded. If one dips his finger into the clean water, he is to marry a maiden; if into the dirty water, a widow; if into the empty dish he will be a bachelor. As each person takes his turn the position of the dishes is changed.

Of a more weird character is the celebrated spell of eating an apple before a looking glass, with the purpose of discovering the inquirer's future husband, who, it is believed, will be seen peeping over her shoulder. Another rite of similar purpose is to wet a shirt sleeve, hang it up before a fire to dry, and lie in bed watching it until midnight, when the apparition of the individual's future partner will come in and turn the sleeve.

Small boys in the cities are unimaginative in these days and to them Hallowe'en appeals not by its spells and spirits, but by its association with mischievous pranks, such as ringing doorbells, putting "tick-tacks" upon front windows and indulging in other tricks of like torment.

Virginia's Sunday School Enterprise.

The Virginia State Sunday School Association has recently undertaken the thorough organization of the State in the interest of Sunday schools, putting Virginia along side all the other great states, territories and provinces in the matter of organization, and keeping pace with the 12,000 city, county and district organizations now so effective and with the 120,000 volunteer workers in the international inter-denominational field.

A new general secretary has recently been engaged and is devoting his entire time to the work.

Mr. Louis J. McIntosh, the new secretary, was formerly of Louisville, Ky., and actively engaged in practical organized denominational and inter-denominational work, and comes to Virginia with full equipment, ready to render service wherever needed.

The State executive committee has opened a new office in the Chamber of Commerce building, room 65, which is to be headquarters hereafter for Virginia State Sunday School Association and where a hearty welcome awaits every interested Sunday school worker from any school, anywhere in the State or elsewhere, and where information pertaining to Sunday school statistics, equipment, methods and literature will be available.

A "Saint's" Demand.

In Secretary Bonaparte's mail yesterday was a postal card from New York and signed by someone who claimed to be a saint. The postal card was so closely written that it was hardly legible. Enough of it was made out, however, to learn that the saint claimed that he had control over the terrors of the sea to such an extent that he thought he was entitled to a billion dollars in gold, which he wanted the nations of the world to pay. He informed Mr. Bonaparte that he wanted $3,000,000 in gold as a portion from the United States.

He declared that this money must be paid on the 18th or 19th of each month, and unless this was done dire calamities would visit this country, incidently adding that if the money was not paid Russia and Washington would suffer. He said he had moved the earth, evidently referring to the San Francisco earthquake, so that he could see exactly what spots to visit with calamities. He declared that he had control of the sun, the moon and the stars, and if the payments in gold were not made all the prominent officials of the various governments would commit suicide, and, therefore, it behooved them to pay up soon.

Attempted Assault

Miss Prudence Brumbaugh, 17 years old, a daughter of John Brumbaugh, tenant on the Garland farm, three miles west of Hagerstown, Md., and a granddaughter of Orphans Court Judge J. Nicholas Brumbaugh, was attacked by a white man yesterday evening.

Miss Brumbaugh had gone to a pasture field, about 300 yards from the barn, to bring the cows home, when the assault was attempted. Just as she was passing through a gate her assailant stepped out from behind a large tree, and grabbing the girl, forced her bonnet into her mouth to keep her from screaming. He then tore off the girl's apron, and tearing it into strips, he bound her hands and feet. At the same time he struck matches and told the frightened girl that if she made an outcry or attempted to break away he would burn her alive.

About this time Miss Brumbaugh's 14 years-old sister, Lizzie Brumbaugh, approached the place. When the man saw the sister coming he fled, and no trace could be found of him afterward, although the neighborhood was searched by a determined band of farmers.

When Lizzie Brumbaugh reached the side of her sister the latter was in a dazed state. Despite the threats of the man, she attempted to scream for help, and when she did so he picked up a handful of dirt and forced it into her mouth. After the strips that bound her had been unfastened Miss Brumbaugh was able to walk to her home.

Clawed by a Lioness.

Emma Schell, a lion tamer, was terribly clawed by a lioness in front of a throng of 400 persons in Huber's Museum in New York, yesterday afternoon. She performs with a lion and lioness, and in closeing the act, opens the mouth of the lioness and then, putting her head close to the open jaws, blows "a kiss." The animal yesterday suddenly snarled at her and scratched, ripping a seam along the side of the face requiring 13 stitches. At the same time the lioness brought in her claw, ripping the other side of the woman's face so that 10 stitches were required. She whipped off the animal without a word, and reaching the door of the cage, escaped and fainted. She was taken to Bellevue Hospital for treatment.

Human Blood Marks.

A tale of horror was told by marks of human blood in the home of J. W. Williams, a well known merchant of Bac, Ky., He writes: "Twenty years ago I had severe hemorrhages of the lungs, and was near death when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery. It completely cured me and I have remained well ever since." It cures Hemmorrhages, Chronic Coughs, Settled Colds and Bronchitis, and is the only known cure for Weak Lungs. Every bottle guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

JEWELRY.

Going Housekeeping?

If so, you can hardly get along without spoons, knives and forks. The silver-plated are without a doubt the most economical in the end. They wear longer, look better and cost very little more than the ordinary kinds. We can even supply silver-plated knives with steel blades.

Your sideboard is hardly complete without a silver set. Silver cake and fruit baskets should also be placed there.

A candelabra with will brighten the table considerably. After the spread has been cleared off a silver fern dish should be placed on the table.

The necessary things in cut-glass are the decanter, the berry bowl and the celery dish. In a great many homes the ice cream is served on cut glass plates.

On your dresser place a traveling alarm clock and a sterling silver or silver-plated toilet set, also a hat and clothes brush.

You will find plenty use of a number of small silver-plated trays. One has always so many trinkets to take care of.

There should be a jewel case on the dresser, if only for appearance sake. Over night it is a good place to keep the watch and Z—K Gold Chain.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING. OCT. 31, 1906.

OF ALL the congressional campaigns conducted in Virginia within the past twenty years, that now about to end has been by far the dullest and most uninteresting, and indications are that a very light vote will be polled throughout the State. Indeed, there is nothing to give animation to the struggle, save in two districts where, as heretofore stated, there are sharp contests and even in these the voters are displaying no wild enthusiasm on either side. In the Ninth both parties seem to perfer a "still hunt" for votes, and for this reason there has been no great amount of public speaking except by the candidates themselves. The candidates have gone among the voters and had talks with them, urging their respective claims for office. The result is that the best of feeling prevails, both among the candidates and the voters, and representatives of both sides declare it has been a clean canvass.

"To republicans: There is great danger through apathy of losing the next House of Representatives. It was lost in 1890—an off year between presidental elections—and in 1892 the democrats gained President, Senate, and House and the people got the Wilson-Gorman tariff and ruin. This is an off year between presidental campaigns, and through apathy there is danger of repeating the experience of 1890 to 1892. Democratic success on November 6 means an end to prosperity. Don't risk it, republicans. Dont fail to vote, and see to it that your neighbor votes with you.

But for their unfortunate nominations in New York and the consequent demoralization of the party there, the democrats could have easily carried that state in next Tuesday's election.

FIFTY-SEVEN Grand Trunk conductors on the Montreal, Portland, Toronto and Ohicago divisions have been dismissed for accepting tips from passengers, particularly commercial travelers, instead of tickets. The management had for some time suspected leakages, and the fact that one conductor is worth $100,000 and another has six grocery stores increased the suspicion. Now the question is whether the fellows who take the dismissed conductors places wont imitate their predecessors and attempt to get rich quickly, as they did.

SECRETARY TAFT admitted in his recent Baltimore speech that the tariff encourages trusts, and that there is an increasing sentiment in the republican party in favor of tariff revision; but he prefers to attack the trusts in the courts instead of in the Congress by cutting off their source of plunder. The monsters are well content with this programme. Anything, as says the Philadelphia Record, is preferable to starvation. In the courts they can fight and make the consumers of the country pay the cost of litigation.

A YOUNG attorney was brought to Newport News on Monday from Smithfield to answer the charge of grand larceny. The warrant was sworn out by a client, who alleges that several months ago the lawyer collected a claim of $260 for him and failed to make a settlement. Many lawyers will think that the times are sadly out of joint if they are to be arrested and harrassed for such little things as not settling with their clients!

THE Panama Canal Commission estimates that it will require an appropriation of $25,456,415 for next year's work. As the building of the canal will require at least from ten to fifteen years and as not less than twenty-five millions a year will be required to pay expenses, the tremendous cost of the undertaking will be readily seen.

THE earnings of the United States Steel Corporation for the past quarter were over $88,000,000. But the trusts maintain that the tariff must be kept up to protect "infant industries!

From Washington.

Washington, Oct. 31.

President Roosevelt retreated from the White House this morning to the quiet of Albemarle county, Va., for a few days rest, punctured with excursions into the Virginia hills in quest of wild turkeys, prior to his departure for Panama. He will remain until Monday afternoon when he starts for Oyster Bay to vote. Mrs. Roosevelt is with him. The six room cottage at Pine Knot has been prepared for the family by a colored caretaker. Mr. Joseph Wilmer, from whom the cottage was bought, will see that the President and Mrs. Roosevelt have some fine riding horses at their disposal during their sojourn. The President traveled in a private Pullman car. Leaving the railroad at North Garden at 2:30 p. m. a 17 mile drive ovet the sand roads must be accomplished. It will be dusk before he reaches "Pine Knot."

Public Printer Stillings was formally notified this morning by the Department of Justice that hereafter simplified spelling rules should not be applied to quotations from court decisions in Supreme Court briefs. His attention was called to the court records of yesterday, when Chief Justice Fuller objected to the word "thru," in a decision by Justice Bradley, in a brief which Solicitor General Hoyt had filed. The simplified spelling had been done by order of the public printer over the solicitor general's protest.

President Roosevelt posed this morning for Mrs. Sally James Farnham, the New York sculptress, who is making a bas relief for the gymnasium of the Jacob Riis Neighborhood House. The bas relief, which is now in clay but will later be cast in bronze, bears the following inscription: "Better faithful than famous. This gymnasium was built by friends of Theodore Roosevelt, citizen of New York and President of the United States, and given to the children of the Jacob Riis Neighborhood House on his forty-eighth birthday, Oct. 27, 1906."

James D. Yeomans, former member of the Interstate Commerce Commission died at his home in Washington this morning after an illness of several months He was 62 years old. Mr. Yeomans was a lawyer and was appointed from Iowa by President He served on the commission until March 1905 when President Roosevelt appointed former Senator Francis M. Cockrell of Missouri. Commissioner Cockrell is now ill and unable to attend to his duties.

Officers and enlisted men of the United States army will wear in the future identification tags made of aluminum and bearing their names and the regiments to which they belong, engraved on the surface. In accordance with a recommendation made by the surgeon general of the army the acting secretary of war today directed that these tags, which will be of the size of a silver half dollar and will be worn around the neck, be manufactured and issued, as soon as possible, to the troops of the American army.

The use of such a tag is deemed by the authorities of the war department of the greatest inportance both on account of its value in adjusting matters of record and pension, and for the satisfaction of relatives and friends of the soldier. In the opinion of the war department officials the importance of such tokens of identification is fully demonstrated by the thousands of graves of unidentified dead of the civil war. Such a badge is generally used in foreign armies.

UNSAFE BRIDGES.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette.

The awful recital in your paper yesterday ought to bring to your attention a similar bridge just below Alexandria built nearly fifteen years ago, in only a temporary manner and long since past its usefulness. It seems to us that it is your duty as guardian of the welfare of those around you to call attention to the character of this bridge over which hundreds of people are carried every day. It will be too late when a similar accident to that recorded in yesterday's paper has happened, and it is peculiarly the province of a newspaper to call attention to such death-traps and to do so repeatedly until the danger is removed. The writer does not pretend to know anything about bridges, but he does know that any bridge without side rails high enough and strong enough to prevent a car from leaving the bridge in case of an accident is unsafe; and that the failure of those to whom the people have a right to look to for protectfon to see that as nearly as possible every measure is taken to insure at least ordinary safety, comes very close to being criminal neglect.

"Jamestown" is fast approaching with its myriads of invited guests. Will we not be lacking in our dutyas hosts, and in that hospitality which is the proud boast of every soul that calls Virginia its home if we allow these, our invited guests, to come here and risk their lives in crossing this bridge? Is there not a possibility of our proving ourselves their murderers?

WATCHMAN.

Attempted to Attack Defendant.

The jury in the Corporation Court of Newport News yesterday returned a verdict of guilty in the case of Clarence Woodworth, charged with criminally assaulting Mrs. Rose Foretich, and fixed his punishment at ten years in the penitentiary. During the trial yesterday morning Mrs. Rose Hagan, mother of the man's victim, created a scene in the courtroom by making an attack on Woodward while he was testifying in his own behalf. Enraged at Woodworth's account of the affair as told the jury, Mrs. Hagan rushed past the lawyers and made a determined effort to get at the prisoner, crying in the meantime for her daughter to bring her the "gun" and she would end him then and there. The infuriated woman was secured by court officers. After the disturbance Attorney E. S. Robinson, defending the prisoner, informed Judge Barham that he would argue the case as he saw it, and if attacked he would defend himself and kill his assailant. The judge then had the attorney searched, but the only weapon found was a penknife, which he was allowed to keep. All of the friends and witnesses for the prosecution were then searched, but no weapons were found and the trial was resumed. A motion for a new trial will be argued Friday.

Shot by Daughter's Suitor.

Mount Carmel, Pa., Oct. 31.—Adam Barbara, was shot and killed by Michael Zuba today because the former objected to the latter paying attention to his daughter.

Against Allowing Pastors Discount.

Alleging that they make no profit and must frequently lose on sales to ministers, dressmakers and theatrical people, who "squeeze" them for 10 per cent. discounts, the Norfolk retail merchants are today trying to combine among themselves to stop this practice and put ministers on equal footing with all other buyers.

The merchants say the discount to preachers is for their influence in sending them customers.

Rev. Geo. W. Wray, Methodist, says any discussion of this is an insult to the ministry.

Rev. Dr. W. G. Starr says he knows of no reason for discounts to preachers, except that it is a matter of "civil righteousness."

Rev. George McFadden says he sees no reason that preachers should not accept discount if they are expected to give anything in return.

In entertaining fashion, Secretary of the Navy Bonaparte delivered an address at Denton, Md., this afternoon dealt with the trust situation. He appeared in advocacy of the election of Wm. H. Jackson, republican candidate for Congress, who he declared "was cheated out of the seat he ought to have filled in present house."

In the report of C. H. Treat, Treasurer of the United States, it is shown that on October 1 the circulation was $2,812,133,694, or a per capita of $33.08, an amount unparalleled in the history of the country. The surplus for the year was $25,669,322. Treasurer Treat shows that the sum of $877,296,238 is held in gold in the United States Treasury.

The New York Court of Appeals last night handed down a decision affirming the right of the Independence League of New York city to make nominations by multiple petitions. The court also decided that in the judicial nominations the judicial certificate filed first had prior claim, and that the Independence League had the right to designate their own candidates.

Mrs. Columbus Alexander, who resides in an old and elegant home in Georgetown, is the victim of a series of thefts as mysterious as they have been annoying to the aged and feeble occupant of the Alexander mansion in the hill above "Cambridge." After asking help to detect the thief, she, however, orders them to cease further investigation. She keeps money at her home, and, it is said, has lost $2,000.

George Estes, who on Sunday night shot and killed Deputy Sheriff Sasely and wounded Constable John Bowers when the officers at Hales Point, Tenn., raided a crap game in which the negro was participating, was taken from a sheriff's posse, by an armed mob at that place Monday night and hanged. A great bonfire was started to furnish light, and Este was told that he had a few minutes in which to prepare for death. He groaned some camp meeting expressions, begged for mercy, beseeched delay upon all sorts of excuses and ended by confessing his guilt.

The French Cabinet held a meeting yesterday and approved a measure providing for the abolition of the death penalty. This means that parliament, at its coming session, will enact a law to that effect. Such action has been expected since the office of "Monsieur de Paris," or public executioner, was suppressed a few months ago by the excision of his salary from the budget. At that time neither the Sarrien ministry nor the Chamber of Deputies took formal action declaring that capital punishment would no longer be inflicted in France, but M. Clemenceau, the new prime minister, has decided on taking a definite step to that end.

Stove Polish, Molasses and Feathers.

With a view of either reforming her or driving her out of town, as they said, four married women of the village of East Sandy, four miles from Franklin, Pa., yesterday treated a neighbor to a coat of stove polish, molasses and feathers. Their arrest followed, but upon pleading guilty they were released on the payment of a small fine.

Two of the women seized their victim while the other pair daubed stove polish on her face until it was entirely covered. Then molasses was poured on her head and a coat of feathers applied.

Thus disfigured the woman was marched out of the house and to a railroad camp, where 200 men are employed. There was a complete suspension of work until the self-styled vigilance committee took their victim away. At the outskirts of the town they tied the woman to a large box, where they left her. A man came along half an hour later and released the captive.

Assassinated by Negro Burglar.

George Bashore, city marshal of Franklin, Ohio, was assassinated in cold blood by Henry White, a Springfield negro burglar, early yesterday. He had attempted to arrest the colored man. The negro may be lynched. The murderer fled, but was captured a mile from town by armed men, but not before he had held them at bay and shot one of them. More than 500 citizens gathered around the posse while the negro was being brought into town, and the officers were forced to display their weapons and threaten to shoot to kill before mob desisted in its determination to lynch the murderer The negro was landed in the Franklin jail, which was soon surrounded by armed men. An automobile was secured, the negro bundled into it and a flying dash taken through the mob to Lebanon, the county seat, where the negro was locked up.

Anarchist Meeting Raided.

A meeting of anarchists was raided and broken up by a large force of police about 10 o'clock last night at the Manhattan Lyceum, 66 east Fourth street, New York. The wildest kind of a riot followed when the police stormed the hall. Women screamed "Down with the police," and "Kill the oppressors." When the men quailed the women themselves led a charge on the police that was hot while it lasted. Many of the officers were badly scratched and punched. Ten of the anarchists were arrested, among them Emma Goldman, who tackled a policeman and was about to whip him when other officers rescued their battered fellow-raider. The meeting was a continuation of one that the police broke up on Forsyth street a week ago. This meeting, like that one, was called to discuss Czolgosz and praise him as a martyr. Julius Edelson hired the hall, called the meeting to order, and was the principal speaker. He was arrested for being concerned in the affair of last week, and was out on $1,000 bail.

Later his condition became very grave, and death resulted. An autopsy revealed a fractured skull and big clot on the brain. The skull was abnormally thin.

A Stumbling Block in the Alliance.

Rome, Oct. 31—With the Vatican as a stumbling block, a halt has come in the negotiations looking for a renewal of the triple alliance between Italy, Austria-Hungary and Germany. In the complications which have arisen diplomats see further evidence of the new grouping of powers which is said to be coming, although official announcement has been made that the new alliance has been accomplished through the arrangement of a military convention between England, France and Italy.

Italy, encouraged by her friendship with England and France, is now demanding as the price of her continuance in the triple alliance that Austria-Hungary shall recognize her temporal supremacy in Rome over the claims of the Pope to exercise such authority.

This is the statement made to the correspondent of the Publishers' Press on high authority. Through the turn the negotiations for renewing the alliance have taken, the pope has thus become the central figure in a delicate diplomatic battle. Italy is determined to play a more important part in European politics than she ever has before. She now demands that Austria shall discontinue her ostracism of the house of Savoy, and declares that Emperor Francis Joseph must come either in person to visit King Victor Emanuel or send a personal representative to pay such a state call.

Such an act on the part of Austria will amount to a renunciation of the claims of the pope to exercise temporal power in Rome. Naturally, the Vatican is opposed to the plan.

It is now stated that the object of the recent visit of Herr von Techirsky, the German Foreign Minister to Rome, was to try to persuade the Vatican to allow a visit from a Hapsburger to King Victor, so the triple alliance can be renewed. As yet the pope has not consented, but negotiations to this end are still in progress. Unless an Austrian visit to Italy is arranged, the old time Alliance between Germany, Austria and Italy may fall and in almost any event the complications which have arisen seem likely to weaken it. That a new alliance between Italy, France, and England should follow seems quite within the range of possibility in the opinion of diplomats.

Charges Castellane with Assault.

Paris, Oct. 31—That Count Boni de Castellane frequently struck and slapped his wife, formerly Miss Anna Gould, during the scenes between the two when he made his oft-repeated demands for money, was the startling declaration made by Countess Anna's attorney, Maitre Cruppi, in the hearing of the Countess's suit for divorce which began today. Other equally as startling revelations as to the unhappy lot to which the countess has submitted during the years of her married life are expected, and the whole hearing promises to be sensational in the extreme.

Maitre Cruppi opened the hearing by demanding an absolute divorce for his client and the custody of the children.

Eleven cases of alleged infidelity on the part of Count Boni we e cited by M Cruppi, and the attorney declares that Boni had five different places for his meetings with other women.

At this point Boni's attorney interrupted the proceedings to demand that the women should be named.

M. Cruppi objected to this on the ground that it would uselessly involve other persons in scandal. The only name mentioned in this connection was that of a notorious demi-monde, Luce de Lemmos, a letter from whom, addressed to her husband, Countess Anna found in a table drawer last December. Countess Anna had known of her husband's relations with other women since 1898, M. Cruppi asserted. The revelation came to her when she found a package of letters written by society women to Boni. When she accused her husband Boni slapped her.

After M. Cruppi had completed his statement an adjournment was taken for a week to allow him to prepare his argument in the case.

It is the intention of Countess Anna to remain in France after she secures her divorce and to rear her children here. This statement was made to the court by M. Cruppi in her behalf, setting at rest the reports that once she were freed from her husband she would return to her native country for good.

Disgusted With Her Royal Husband.

Stockholm, Sweden, Oct. 31—Utterly disgusted with the boorishness of her husband, Prince Gustavus Adolphus, son of the Crown Prince Gustavus, Princess Margaret of Connaught, niece of King Edward, is threatening to return to London to live with her parents, and so far every influence which it is possible to bring to bear upon her has proved insufficient to make her promise to forego taking the course.

The young royal couple were married in June, 1905. Her sixteen months existence as the wife of the Swedish prince has thoroughly convinced Princess Margaret that her marriage was a great mistake, and she is anxious to escape from her husband that she may enjoy some peace of mind once more.

Incompatibility of temper is responsible for the troubles of the couple. The princess is a sensitive, highly strung woman, while Prince Gustavus Adolphus is rough and boorish. They are exact opposites in nature, and the coarseness of her husband has about driven the princess to distraction.

Every effort is being made at court to hush up the scandal and the princess has been urged for the sake of her infant son, not to leave her husband. So far, however, she has refused to promise.

Ascertaining Cause of Accident.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 31.—A sensation is expected when the coroner's verdict is returned and the responsibility fixed for the wreck of the electric train which plunged into the tidewater stream, the Thoroughfare, Sunday afternoon. An examination of the running gear of the cars has shown that there was no fault here, and there is the best of reasons for believing that the company will be held responsible for the disaster and that a faulty bridge will be proven the cause.

One car still remains in the water and the divers are working today in an effort to raise it. It is expected that once this is accomplished and a thorough search of the bottom of the stream is possible, other bodies now weighted down by pieces of wreckage, will be found.

It seems today as though the total list of dead will be within one or two figures of sixty.

Mysterious Shooting.

Englewood, N. J., Oct. 31—Hysterical and at times seemingly out of her head, Florence Le Foster, a pretty, well dressed young woman, of Brooklyn, is today a practical wreck at police headquarters, where she is locked up after shooting John Lyman, a young man of Bergen Field, on the street last night. Her victim is in the Englewood Hospital with a bullet of large calibre in his left shoulder, and his condition is serious.

"He followed me," is the only explanation Miss Le Foster has given to account for her act. She insists she never saw Lyman before she shot him. Mystery which the police have been unable to dispel surrounds the case.

Miss Le Foster is known to have come here on a West Shore train from West Nyack, having previously paid a visit to New York Her revolver was purchased there, she admits, and it is new. Walking along Washington street Miss Le Foster encountered Lyman. They met face to face and bystanders heard her say: "Don't harm me or I will fire." Then came the shot and Lyman fell. Miss Le Foster made no effort to escape.

One theory the police hold is that Miss Le Foster may have been looking for another man, and shot Lyman by mistake

The New York Election.

New York, Oct. 31—New York city will determine the result of the gubernatorial campaign in the Empire State. That is the best opinion obtained today from the leaders conducting the canvass of Charles E Hughes and William R Hearst. On the magnitude of Hearst's plurality in the metropolis depends his election as Governor of the State.

Reports to the republican and democratic state committee indicate without much doubt that the usual republican upstate pluralities will be much reduced this year. Sentiment has crystallized above the Bronx, and, unless all signs fail, and there is an under current, which no one has been able to detect, the republican plurality of 100,000 above the Harlem will not be approximated this year by many thousands. There are a multiplicity of reasons given by the republican managers for this opinion.

William R Hearst is in Buffalo today and Mr. Hughes is speaking in Central New York. Both are confident, for the reports made to them are optimistic.

Hostile Indians.

Sheridan, Wy., Oct. 31—Fighting between the renegade Utes and the cavalry forces now in pursuit of them is expected at almost any hour. The troops have about succeeded in rounding up the Utes and as the latter declare they will fight rather than return to their reservation, where they claim they cannot get enough to eat, bloodshed seems unavoidable. To make the situation worse, 800 Cheyenne braves, equipped with modern rifles and well supplied with ammunition are ready to join the Utes if they have not already done so. Settlers living in the region through which the Indians, are moving, are panic stricken. Women and children are being hurried to points of safety, and there is not a ranch in the country side that is not fortified. That there is reason for the apprehension of the settlers is shown by the murder yesterday of a sheep herder on Butte creek by Utes.

Cheyenne, Wy., Oct. 31.—Six troops of cavalry are moving toward the Ute Indians on Powder river near the Montana line to round them up.

Mrs. Eddy's Followers Perturbed.

Concord, N. H., Oct. 31.—The "kitchen cabinet" of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, who arranged for her dramatic appearance yesterday, are visibly perturbed today over their failure to properly impress the outside world with the fact that their aged leader has discovered the fountain of "perpetual youth" and is proof against the ravages of nature. They decline to receive visitors today. All persons calling at Pleasant View are told that there is no one there who can talk about the affairs of the faith and the request is made that they call again "in a day or two".

In Male Attire.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 31.—Mrs. W. C. Walters, 48 years old, suspecting her husband's fidelity, dressed in a suit of his clothes, put on a slouch hat and a fierce black mustache and followed him to his lodge last night. When she saw her husband enter the lodge, as he told her he intended doing, she started home, but before going far she was arrested by a policeman on Ninth street northwest, who took her to the First Precinct station. A messenger was sent to her home for suitable apparel and after changing her clothes Mrs. Walters was allowed to depart.

Re-elected Directors.

Cincinnati, Oct. 31. — William K. Vanderbilt, Chauncey M. Depew, J. Pierpont Morgan and Melville E. Ingalls were re-elected directers of the "Big Four" Railroad for a term of three years at the annual meeting of the stockholders here today. The directors will meet in New York soon to organize and elect officers. The common capital stock of the company will be increased from $40,000,000 to $50,000,000 to be used in making extensions.

Suits Against Pullman Company.

Altoona, Oct. 31—Pure food inspectors James Foust of Altoona and W. A. Hutchinson of Jeanette, today entered two suits against the Pullman Car Company for selling milk and cream alleged to contain formaldehyde, a deadly poison on the dining cars of the Chicago limited. Other suits, it is stated will be entered in Westmoreland Allegheny, Beaver and Armstrong counties.

Must Begin His Prison Term.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 31.—In the case of Dr. Matthews, a physician of Greensboro, N. C., convicted of murder in the second degree, and given 20 years in the penitentiary for poisoning his wife with morphine, the Supreme Court finds no error, and Dr. Matthews, now in a Baltimore sanitarium under $5,000 bond, must be returned to North Carolina and begin his prison term.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 31—The volume of business continued small during the first hour and the price movements were generally narrow and without importance. Room traders were disposed to take the bull side and were buyers of a few stocks. Trading in the rest of the list was featureless and the tone generally heavy.

To Build Large Navy.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 31—It is learned that the Russian admiralty has determined to carry out its original programme of reconstruction and enlargement despite the fact that the condition of the finances of the country have compelled the curtailment of the naval appropriations of 1907 by $11,000,000. Russia will doubtless launch a respectable squadron of Dreadnaughts within a decade. At any rate, she will build no more vessels of smaller dimentions

Rioter Fined.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct 31.—George W. Blackstock, alleged to be one of rioters of the Saturday night when sixteen negroes met their death in Atlanta, was today convicted on the charge of assault and battery. A fine of $300 was imposed. This is the first conviction growing out of the rioting, and there are 159 cases on the docket. Blackstock is alleged to have assaulted a negro woman during the disturbances.

Wife Slayer Must go to Jail.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 31. — Dr. J. B. Matthews, of Greensboro, N. C., who was sentenced to 20 years in the penitentiary for murdering his wife by hypodermically injecting a drug into her legs as she lay ill in bed while he was professing to pray for her, will have to serve his term. The Supreme Court has announced that it finds no error in his conviction or sentence. The physician has been out on $5,000 bail since his trial, which time he has spent in a sanitarium near Baltimore in an effort to cure himself of the habit of taking drugs.

Wedding.

The residence of Capt. Herbert Bryant on north Washington street was the scene today of a brilliant home wedding when his daughter, Miss Agnes Carlyle Bryant, became the bride of Mr. John Downes, jr., Lieutenant, U. S. N. The marriage was solemnized at noon in the presence of a number of friends and relatives of the two families, Rev. P. P. Phillips, of St. Paul's Church, officiating. The bride was given in marriage by her father on whose arm she entered the artistically decorated drawing room, the color scheme of which was white and green. Miss Ruth Bryant, sister of the bride, was her only attendant and Ensign J. O. Richardson was best man. The bride's gown was an exquisite creation of white crepe, embroidered in Japan some months ago from designs, and under the direction, of the bride herself, when she was visiting that country. The maid of honor wore a dainty gown of pink marquisette and carried a large cluster of pink chrysanthemums. The groom and his best man wore the full uniforms of naval officers. Schroeder's orchestra, of Washington, stationed in the hall, gave a charming programme, and after the ceremony the guests were entertained at a beautiful luncheon, served by Raucher, of Washington. The decorations were by Gude, also of Washington. The wedding gifts were of unusual beauty and number. The bride is of colonial ancestry, being directly descended on her father's side from the Carlyle, Fairfax, Herbert and Snowden families of Virginia and Maryland, and on her mother's side from the Claggetts of Maryland, to which family Bishop Claggett, one of the first bishops in America, belonged. Her father, Capt. Herbert Bryant, is an ex-Confederate officer, having served most gallantly as adjutant general of Corse's brigade. The groom is the son of Lieut. John Downes, U. S. N., (retired) the grandson of Capt. John Downes, U. S. N., who died at New Orleans during the civil war, and the great grandson of Commodore John Downes, U. S. N., who entered the navy in 1798. The name of Downes has not been off the navy register for a longer period than two years since 1798. Lieutenant Downes graduated from the United States Naval Academy in 1901, and since then he has spent his time abroad in China and Japan and the Philippines, with a short cruise in Santo Domingo. After their wedding trip Lieutenant and Mrs. Downes will go to Des Moines, Iowa, where the lieutenant will be stationed for the next two years.

Among the out-of-town guests present were the families of Senator Pinkney Whyte and Mr. Kennedy Boone, of Baltimore; Mrs. Clarence C. Whiting and Miss Alice Whiting, of Baltimore; Messrs. Fairfax and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. A. Lee, of Washington; Capt. Archer, U. S. A., Ensign Henderson and Mrs. Henderson; Mrs. Madeline Hunter Edmondstone, Mrs. Henry Groome and Miss Upton, of Philadelphia.

The Machinists' Strike.

President James O'Connell, of the International Association of Machinists, announced yesterday afternoon that he had arranged for a conference with a committee representing the striking machinists of the Southern Railway and the officials of that company, to be held in New York tomorrow morning.

H. D. Stewart, mechanical superintendent of the Southern Railway, stated last night that he had not had any official communication from the president or general manager of that company relative to the proposed conference. Mr. Stewart seemed very favorable to the company's original plan of making the strikers submit their claims to a board of arbitration.

The secretary of the International Association of Machinists still continues to pay out funds from the treasury of that association on account of the strike fund. The money paid out to date will reach over $45,000, married men receiving $7 per week. Single men, with some one dependant upon them receive the same amount, while unmarried men with no one to support are getting $5 a week.

Everything was quiet in and around the depot in this city this morning. No work has been done on the new locomotives yet.

Fined Seventy-five Dollars.

Another city druggist was arraigned before the Police Court this morning charged with the unlawful sale of cocaine. He had been cited to appear by Officer Jones. The same witness who testified against another druggist this week were again placed on the stand. They said they had purchased a certain catarrh powder, containing a percentage of cocaine, from the accused. The latter acknowledged that he had up to two or three weeks ago sold the powder referred to, as he had, also, other proprietary preparations, without being acquainted with the formula; that when he had ascertained its composition he ceased to dispose of the powder. He had stopped the sale of it a short time before the trial of Banks in the Corporation Court when attention had been directed to this allegal catarrh cure. Justice Caton quoted the law forbidding the sale of cocaine or any preparations thereof save on a physicians prescription, and as he had imposed fines on two other druggists for similar offenses, he said he could make no exception in this case. He accordingly fined the accused $75. The druggist took an appeal to the Corboration Court. It is said that police will arraign other city druggists on similar charges.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

A druggist, arrested by Officer Jones charged with the unlawful sale of cocaine, was fined $75.

Death of Col. Dulany.

Colonel Richard H. Dulany died at his home, "Welbourne," Loudoun county, today, aged 86 years, after a short illness. His death will be learned with deep regret by his many friends in this city and throughout the State. Colonel Dulany served gallantly in the Confederate service and received wounds which he bore till his death.

Officer Returned.

Officer Knight, who went to Logania, Pennsylvania last Sunday in an attempt to locate Frank Robinson, colored, charged with complicity in the murder of Charles T. Smith, on the night of October 20, returned last night.

Officer Knight proceeded from this city to Harrisburg where he had an interview with Col. J. H. Hudson, chief of police of that city. The later manifested considerable interest in the murder and assured Officer Knight that he would do all in his power to aid in locating Robinson. Col. Hunter detailed two officers to accompany the Alexandria officer to Logania, 28 miles from Harrisburg, from which place Robinson is said to have sent a letter to a colored woman in this city. The letter had been secured a few days ago by Lieutenant Smith and Officer Knight.

Upon reaching Logania the officers proceeded to interview the postmaster at that place. He said a colored man, whose personal appearance he described and which tallies with that of Robinson, entered the postoffice where he purchased a sheet of paper, an envelope and a special delivery stamp. After having written the letter, he enclosed two five-dollar notes in it, and having sealed the envelope turned it over to the postmaster. The latter recognized the envelope shown him by Officer Knight as that sent by the negro. The postmaster said that the stamp sold to the darkey was the first of that class disposed of at the Logania postoffice for several months past; hence he remembered all the circumstances concerning its sale.

Chief Goods and Cora Abson, a young colored woman, were at the postoffice today in reference to the letter by which it had been expected Robinson would be arrested.

The Mathews-Mulhall Trial.

The most important evidence offered yesterday in defense of Capt. Mathews and Lieut. Mulhall, on trial before the Washington Police Board, was brought out in the statement of Fire Marshal Nicholson, who stated that at all fires and wrecks the fire chief orders, and expects the police to keep everyone from the scene except firemen and police officers.

The fire marshal and others substantiated the charge that Capt. Mathews had struck Capt. W. A. Dixon, of the Fire Department, and shoved him back when the latter was attempting to reach the engine. Capt. Dixon testified to this effect, as did Bicycle Policeman Kliendienst and several other persons.

The hearing was resumed this morning and adjourned at noon, as Capt. Mathews is an important witness against Joseph Wright, the negro, who is to be tried today in Alexandria county for murder, assault, and robbery.

Dangerous Candy.

Colored candy of the kind known as "jaw breakers" and various other names is blamed for the illness of about fifty children in West New Rochelle, New York, especially in the vicinity of the Union Avenue school. One little girl died on Monday. The police and health departments have been making an investigation. The first cases of illness broke out about a week ago, and new ones have occurred at intervals since. None of the children now ill are believed to be in danger. The authorities found that within the last ten days the stores in the vicinity had sold an enormous lot of candies in question, which are big, hard, various colored lumps of sweets impaled upon a wooden skewer. The sale of these has been stopped. The candy referred to above is sold in Alexandria, and parents would do well to note this fact and act accordingly.

Vesper Service.

The committee having charge of the solemn vesper service which will be given on Sunday next at St. Mary's Catholic Church under the auspices of Fitzgerald Council, No. 459, Knights of Columbus, have perfected all arrangements for the same. Rev. Father Alber Negahauqut, a full-blooded Pottawatomie Indian, from Oklahoma, a student of the Apostolic Mission House, Brookland, D. C., will be the celebrant. A sermon appropriate to the occasion will be delivered by Very Rev. Alexander P. Doyle, C. S. P., superior of the Apostolic Mission House, of Brookland, D. C. The old Gregorian vesper service will be chanted by a double sextette, composed of seminarians from the Holy Cross College, Brookland, D. C. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Supposed to Have Been Drowned

The relatives and friends of Mr. George R. Rodgers fear that he was drowned during the severe storm which passed over the southern portion of Florida recently. The young man was employed with others in building a railroad which is intended to connect Key West with the mainland of Florida, and he with fellow-workmen was in a houseboat when the storm broke. The houseboat was driven out by the wind and torn almost to pieces by the elements. Some of the occupants were later picked up from parts of the wreck. A letter sent to the youngs man's former address by his sister has been returned by the postmaster, Young Rodgers was a son of Mr. R. D. Rodgers, of this city.

Circuit Court for the County.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

Joseph Thomas, alias John Wright, colored, was placed on trial for his life in the Circuit Court for the County this morning. Four indictments are pending against the prisoner, all of which are punishable by hanging. The first taken up was that of rape upon Miss Mabel Risley, now Mrs. Forest Gooding.

The other indictments against the prisoner are criminally assaulting Annie Green, colored; murdering Jackson Boney, colored, and a felonious assault with intent to kill, on Ernest Gooding. Wright, as heretofore stated, was surrendered to the Virginia authorities on October 25th last on a requisition from Governor Swanson. In the trial today he is being defended by Messrs. J. E. Clements and B. D. Boteler, while the State is represented by Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey. A jury was secured without difficulty and the trial was proceeded with in due form. The case was in progress when this report closed, the prisoner having entered a plea of not guilty.

Among the witnesses who testified before a recess was taken by court were Chief Price and Officer Dye, of the Luna Park police force. Their testimony brought out little besides what has already been published. Mrs. Gooding will take the stand this evening.

Personal.

A surprise party was given to Miss Nellie Pfeiffer in honor of her birthday Monday night at her home in Washington. Among those present were Mrs. Bernard Donnelly, of Baltimore, and Mr. and Mrs. Brill, of Alexandria.

Mr. J. T. Preston arrived today from High Point, N. C., and will tomorrow enter upon the discharge of his duties as secretary of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce.

Want Active Firemen.

At a meeting of the Reliance Fire Company held last night it was charged that certain members of the organization who were in the habit of attending fires failed to render any assistance toward extinguishing the same. It was alleged that the persons referred stood by and criticised those who did work and it was suggested that such should not appear at meetings of the company and participate in discussions and cast votes when they showed no disposition to become active firemen. The matter was referred to a committee.

Suit for Divorce.

Mae S. Brooke, nee Mae S. Parrish, one of Washington's prettiest telephone operators who married Wm. Irvin Brooke, instituted suit in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia for divorce this morning. Mr. Brooke, who is the young son of Mrs. Brooke, a wealthy resident of that city, and of one of the most exclusive families of Maryland, is alleged to have treated his wife cruelly and failing to support her. They were married in Alexandria last month.

Pistol Shots.

Several pistol shots were heard about nine o'clock last night in the southeastern section of this city. Some persons positively asserted that the shots were fired on Wolfe street, at some point between Royal and Lee, others were equally sure that a pistol had been discharged on Fairfax street, while some said the shots had been fired in an alley. It was learned this morning that a man was testing a gun in his yard.

The President.

President Roosevelt reached the union depot on his way to Albemarle county at 11:32 this morning. His private car was attached to passenger train No. 35 of the Southern Railway. Only passengers and employees were at the depot at the time.

STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years.

Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for many years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me."

The First Bathing Machine.

There does not seem to be much doubt that the first bathing machine was seen at Margate and that it was the invention of a worthy Quaker named Beale, who placed his hopeful invention on the Margate beach in 1750. "The public are obliged to Benjamin Beale, one of the people called Quakers, for the invention," writes the author of "A Short Description of the Isle of Thanet," published in 1796. But it was the old story, the public became grateful after the inventor had been ruined by his enterprise. His successors had reaped the harvest. Old Benjamin Beale's widow could remember in her last days the first family that ever resorted to Margate for the purpose of bathing being carried into the sea in a covered cart. In 1808 Beale's machines were one of the institutions of Margate. It was alarmingly claimed for them that "they may be driven to any depth into the sea by careful guides."—T. P.'s London Weekly.

The Busiest Street In the World.

West street in New York presents a network of piers and docks for its whole length. Most of the great steamship and railway transportation companies have their pier terminals there, and other steamship companies have built their terminals on the New Jersey shore opposite, so that all transatlantic and a large share of the continental travelers must cross West street in coming to or leaving the city. When one considers the great number of short trip travelers, including commuters, who daily make their way in and out of the metropolis across this busy thoroughfare a faint idea of its importance may be gained. Manhattan Island has thirty-two miles of water front.—John P. Fritts in Leslie's Weekly.

This Was In 1824.

English opinion of the United States in 1824, from the standpoint of the fashionable London set, is shown in the extract from the correspondent of John Whishaw:

"You must have read some time since in the papers of a few young 'fashionables,' Mr. Stanley (Lord Derby's grandson), Messrs. Wortley and Denison, ministerial members, and Labouchere, a nephew of Mr. Baring, having sailed for New York with the intention of making a tour of the United States. The scheme was thought very wild and much disapproved of by the west end of the town, and disappointment and disgust were universally predicted."

Superstitions of Fishermen.

English herring fishermen are, many of them, remarkably superstitious. For instance, on some fishing boats whistling is forbidden, and neither milk nor burned bread is allowed on board. Furthermore, not even the name of that unlucky animal, the hare, may be mentioned, and a common method of punishing an enemy is to throw a dead hare into his boat. Some of the fishermen believe in luck attending an odd numbered crew, but the good fortune may be neutralized should one of the number have red hair.—London Standard.

The Pendulum.

Honors are being stolen from most of the great men of former days. Galileo was said to have discovered the law of isochronism of the pendulum while pursuing his studies at Pisa in 1581. Now we learn that the pendulum was used as a correct measure of time among the Arabs as far back as the year 1000.

Great Combination.

Suitor—I cannot boast of wealth, but I have brains. The members of my literary club will tell you that you'd have the smartest debater in town for a son-in-law. Father—And I can assure you, my dear fellow, that you'd have the greatest lecturer in the town for a mother-in-law.

Mistaken.

Jones—Smith says that it is the hills that make the echo. Brown—So they do. Jones—And here I've lived all these years thinking it was the holler.—New York Times.

Snakeless Honeymoon.

He (musingly)—Adam and Eve lost paradise, poor things! She (rapturously)—But we found it, didn't we, darling?—Puck.

Devil's Island Torture.

is no worse than the terrible case of Piles that afflicted me 10 years. Then I was advised to apply Bucklen's Arnica salve, and less than a box permanently cured me, writes L. S. Napier, of Rugles, Ky. Heals all wounds, Burns and Sores like magic. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists.

A cold is much more easily cured when the bowels are open. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar opens the bowels and drives the cold out of the system in younger or old. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.
